LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—Freight traffic is unusually heavy on the Lake road this month, and extra trains are run almost daily.

—J. H. Gingsras, the Laconia optician, is coming to St. Johnsbury next month to test the eyes and fit glasses.

—A special meeting of the Eastern Star is to be held on Saturday evening for work. A full attendance is desired.

—Several of the Gun club were at the range Saturday afternoon. The best average was made by Beck, who got 13 points out of a possible 25.

—The Juniors of the South church will give a social on Friday evening of this week. All friends of the Juniors are invited to be present. Admission twelve cents.

—A history and travel class has been formed among some of the members of the Woman's Club and the class is now studying the history of the St. Lawrence valley.

—A special examination for the teachers of this county will be held in the Union school building on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 27 and 28, commencing at 9 o'clock in the forenoon.

These are the advertised letters at the post office for the week ending Nov. 7:
Mrs. Mary F. Butts, Mrs. Sarah Greene, Mrs. H. C. Whitson, Linke Buzzell, W. S.
Dunn, T. W. Lions, Leslie C. Wright.

—The Imperial quartette and Dr.
Tinker helped the Knights of Pythias lodge at Hardwick spend an enjoyable evening Tuesday. Supreme Representative Lee of Rhode Island was also present.

—Supt. Titcomb of the hatchery has ordered a blue uniform with brass buttons in response to an order from the national fish commissioner that all superintendents of hatcheries must wear a uniform.

—The Girls' Friendly society will give an oyster supper and entertainment in K. P. Hall Thursday evening Nov. 19.
Supper from 6:30 to 8 o'clock, followed by an entertainment consisting of music and an illustrated poem. Admission including supper 25 cents. The proceeds are for the benefit of a hospital fund.

"The Old Farmer's Almanac" for 1897 has just been issued and is on sale at the book stores. This is the 105th annual appearance of this favorite almanac, and its appearance is eagerly anticipated in many homes.

—Do not forget the entertainment in G.
A. R. hall Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.
Good music, recitations and speeches upon leading subjects, are upon the programme followed by refreshments and a promenade. Admission at the door.

—Bills are out for the Thanksgiving ball to be given under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans. The St. Johnsbury orchestra will furnish music and during the concert from 8 to 9 the celebrated comedians French and Adams will perform a few of their inimitable antics.

—Wm. Ramsey met with a surprise last Friday while riding through Paddock's village on a dump cart. The cart dumped without giving a notice to Ramsey, who took a sudden trip into the air and upon landing spent a few quiet but painful moments gazing at stars.

—To accommodate Prof. Blaisdell the next rehearsal of the Choral Union will be held on Monday evening, instead of Tuesday evening. Mr. Blaisdell will bring with him some extra copies of the "Creation," so those who wish to purchase copies for themselves can do so.

—Supt. Kelly and a goodly delegation of teachers left yesterday morning for St.
Albans, to attend the annual meeting of the Teachers' association. The party had two hours at Montpelier, which gave them a chance to look in at the legislature. Where the teachers are absent their sessions of school were omitted until next Monday.

—The Salvation Army Lesser string band will give a salvation concert in the town hall on Saturday, Nov. 14. They have been pronounced by the press as accomplished musicians, and have drawn big audiences. Accompanied by some leading officers of the army, they will assist at meetings in the same hall on Sunday at 2:30 and 8 p. m.

—Several St. Johnsbury citizens went to Montpelier yesterday in the interests of the proposed amendments to the village charter. The bill is now before the committee on corporations and up to yesterday morning had not been reported. Another petition to have the trustees elected annually is now in circulation and is receiving a good many signatures.

Business Notes.—Wm. McLaughlin, manager for the Singer Sewing Machine company, has moved his office from Drouin's block to the vacant store in Gauthier's block on Eastern avenue, where he will keep a good display of the famous machines.

Church News.—"A noted prisoner and his books," will be the topic of the lecture to young people, by Rev. Mr. Tyrrie, next Sunday evening, at Grace Methodist church.

The ladies of the Free Baptist church will have a sociable and supper at M. E.
Clifford's, No. 12 Summer St., this (Friday) evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

Fraternities.—The Golden Cross Commandery spent a pleasant social time after their regular meeting Friday evening. Delegations were present from Lyn-donville, West Concord and Littleton.
An address of welcome was given by L.
W. Rowell and other informal remarks were made, including a short talk from the state grand commander, L. M.
Cragin of Springfield. Over a hundred sat down at the banquet table.

About a dozen from the Green Mountain Commandery will attend an entertainment given by the Golden Cross at Lynndonville this evening.

A Peculiar Accident.—Mrs. Annette Magoon of Pearl street, clerk at Scott & Underwood's, met with an accident in a peculiar manner last Monday morning.
She stepped on to the piazza roof for the purpose of washing windows. Owing to the recent rains the shingles were very slippery, and losing her balance she slid off the roof to the ground, a distance of 12 feet, turning her ankle and injuring one hip in the fall. Mrs. Magoon is now getting on as comfortably as can be expected after such a severe fall, and her friends all hope that her injuries will not develop into anything more serious.

Big Fish for Sutton.—Capt. Pierce of the United States Fish Commission was here Tuesday night with one of the special cars for transporting fish that the government owns. Supt. Titcomb of the Hatchery met the car here and accompanied it to Sutton where over 800 fish were transferred to Blake pond. The fish were the Von Behr or German trout and weighed about three pounds apiece.
Mr. Titcomb proposes to post the pond for the present and experiment with raising this kind of trout, the car returned to St. Johnsbury on the mail train Wednesday morning and left for Portland in the afternoon.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. G. W. Spencer is expected home from a two months' visit in Des Moines, Iowa, on Thursday.

Dr. H. S. Browne left Wednesday for Albuquerque, N.M., to visit his daughter, Mrs. H. J. Emerson, for three or four weeks.

Conductor Ranney of the Lake road returned to his post this week after a three weeks' vacation spent in Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. W. W. Wright, who has been spending the summer at "Fairview," Rye, N.H., has come to St. Johnsbury to spend the winter.

Jerry Gilmore of Derby Line was in town this week. He is now nicely located in that village, and moves his family back with him.

Mrs. Anna Spencer Frost has been engaged to give recitals at the Grand Opera House, Littleton, Nov. 17th, with the Manchester, N. H., Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club.

Frank B. Thompson, son of Judge Thompson of Irasburg and a graduate of the Academy in the class of '94, is coming to St. Johnsbury to read law in W.
P. Stafford's office.

E. H. Walcott, whose friends are legion in St. Johnsbury, has recently accepted the position of claim agent for the West End Railway Co., of Boston. Mr. Walcott's home is still in Wellesley.

Hon. C. J. Bell of Walden, Master of the State Grange, was here Monday night en route for Washington to attend the annual meeting of the National Grange. Mrs. Bell accompanied him on the trip.

William S. Streeter of Minneapolis, formerly of this place, has been unwell for several weeks past, and is now confined to his bed. His friends are not at all encouraged at his condition but hope for his speedy recovery.

Conductor S. W. Parkhurst, who was obliged to give up railroading a few weeks ago in order to regain his health, does not improve as fast as his friends wish, and it may be some time before he can resume his post. He is able to get out and not only voted for McKinley last week, but took a lively interest in the celebration on Tuesday night.

Recent Deaths.—News was received here Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Charles S. Dana at the home of her son, I. P.
Dana, in Kansas City, Mo. The remains are being brought to St. Johnsbury and the funeral will be held at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. D. Patterson, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs.
Dana had not been in good health, but her death came as a shock to her relatives and friends here.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E.
H. Blossom will sympathize deeply with them in the death of their infant daughter, Charlotte Mary Blossom, which occurred last Sunday morning. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon and many beautiful floral tributes were sent by loving friends.

Poultry Meeting.—At the adjourned meeting of the Vermont Poultry Association Saturday evening, G. P. Moore, president, H. N. Barrett, secretary, and J. C.
Underwood, director, were appointed committee to arrange all special prizes for the coming exhibition. Mr. Underwood was appointed to solicit advertisements and H. B. Daniels to solicit the special prizes. Many new novelties will be introduced at the exhibition to be held January 12-15. The association has offered three $10 cups to be competed for, besides numerous cash special prizes aside from their regular cash premiums.
Specially constructed folding exhibition coops are being made that will accommodate 1000 birds. The coop is the invention of Fremont Ranney. Secretary Barrett is working hard for the good of the association and all interested are giving him able assistance. The association is a state organization but the members here feel that if the necessary encouragement is received the exhibitions will be kept here.

Post Office Statistics.—By order of the department all mail matter received and sent from this office for the last 30 working days has been weighed. The dates selected were from Oct. 7 to Nov.
10. On the route north and south 7,886 pounds of mail matter were despatched and 13,591 pounds received. On the route east and west 4,616 pounds were despatched and 3,805 received. The total received was 17,396 pounds and total sent 12,502 pounds. The total weight of all mail matter received and sent was 29,898 pounds, or 102 pounds less than 15 tons. For an office of this size we believe this is an excellent showing. In these figures no account is made of the papers sent from the St. Johnsbury newspaper offices to residents of St.
Johnsbury. As four papers are distributed every week, the total amount of mail matter handled by our post office force averages considerably over half a ton a day.

A Clam Chowder Supper.—The ladies of the church of the Messiah will serve a clam chowder supper in connection with their annual fair to be held Friday afternoon and evening, Nov. 20, in the vestry parlors. Many useful and fancy articles will be for sale. A very attractive quilt has been made which is well worth going to see. Its disposal will be of the character to make some merchant or railroad man smile, the one getting the most votes being awarded the quilt.
Another attractive feature, highly seasoned, will be a scripture cake, the names of the ingredients being found in the Bible. This cake will be sold in slices, a recipe being given with each slice. Come one and all as this organization is sadly in need of the benefits of your presence.
A Jack Horner pie will be there to please the little ones and McKinley prices to suit all.

American Interests in Samoa.—The Boston Journal has the following comment upon Chief Justice Ide's recent decisions upon Samoan land cases: Chief Justice Ide of Samoa has decided the long standing Polynesian land litigation in favor of American claimants, Messrs. Wellman, Weylan and Hobbs of California, and the American interests in the Samoan Islands now become nearly equal to the British. It is hoped in Apia that this large increase in the American holdings of Samoan property may lead to renewed visits from American warships cruising in the Pacific, and that the cooling stations at Pago-Pago Harbor may be equipped and utilized. It is also thought likely that President Cleveland's policy of laissez faire toward Samoa will be sharply reversed and something in this direction done by the new republican administration.

The Harvest Festival.—The ladies of the North church who worked so hard in arranging for the harvest festival have every reason to be proud of their efforts as the affair was a great success in every way and netted the society just $302.
The Stanley Opera House never looked handsomer and the beautifully decorated booths elicited great praise. The electric lights were used to good advantage and over the fancy article booth were the rosettes of lights of different colors, which in addition to the effect from the bunting made the whole very attractive.
There was a lively sale at all the booths and at the close of Friday evening's entertainment there was an auction, but very few things were left unsold before the auctioneer's services were requested.
Among the many articles in the loan exhibit was one worthy of special mention. This was a large blue china platter loaned by Miss C. H. Streeter of Waterford and was a duplicate of a dinner set presented to Gen. Lafayette on the occasion of his visit to America. The platter is over 100 years old and is valued at hundreds of dollars.

Friday noon dinner was served which over 300 people attended. In the evening there was a most enjoyable entertainment at a popular price and the attendance was unusually large. The programme opened with "Aunt Jerusha's Family Album," with Miss Eleanor G.
Stephens as "Aunt Jerusha." This part of the entertainment was a decided hit, and called out lots of applause. A double quartette, consisting of the Mahogany and Imperial quartettes, sang twice, the second appearance being in response to an encore. The entertainment closed with the dolls' drill, finely executed by 12 little girls. Their performance elicited an encore and they repeated the drill.
Music was furnished during the evening by the St. Johnsbury orchestra.

The Village Charter.—The St. Johnsbury Board of Trade held a special meeting Saturday night to wrestle with the village charter and discussed the new charter for about two hours. Elmore T.
Ide, as chairman of the special committee, presented the report, which consisted of the copies of the two bills which have been introduced by Representative Bates.
The first is original with Mr. Bates and provides for the election of the trusttees every year and reduces the number from six to three. The second bill, House 295, is the one containing the amendments proposed by the special committee appointed by the Board of Trade at the October meeting. In this bill there is a provision for having a board of four trustees, whose terms of office shall be two years and two of whom shall be elected at each annual meeting.

W. P. Stafford spoke strongly upon having the term of trustees remain the same as now and introduced the following resolution which was unanimously passed:— Resolved, That this bill, House 294, shall not become operative until ratified by a vote of the village and that this same provision shall apply to any amendments to the village charter.

Elmore T. Ide believed in the old town system or having the officers chosen every year. Charles P. Carpenter and Marshall Montgomery agreed with Mr.

Ide. George H. Cross favored the bill introduced by the special committee, and C. A. Calderwood was opposed to shortening the term of the trustees. The secretary read the amendments to the charter and they were discussed by Messrs.
Carpenter, Ide, Montgomery, Cross, E.
L. Hovey and others. Judge Smith, chairman of the special committee, reported what the committee had done and the following resolution, introduced by Mr. Cross, was passed:— Resolved, That the Board of Trade endorse the charter of the special committee, subject to any amendments which may be adopted, and thank the committee for their services.

These were the only votes passed at the meeting and the rest of the time was spent in discussing different features of the new charter.

How to Get the Post Office.—Since McKinley's election Congressman Grout has been besieged with post office matters from all over his district and for the benefit of would-be office holders he has issued the following notice:

To whom it may concern:—I am daily receiving letters relating to post office appointments under the incoming administration, and take this method to inform all aplicants for such appointments in the second district, that in all cases where there is more than one candidate the election will be referred to a caucus of the residents at republican patrons of the office. I desire to put into practice the principles of the "Bill to enable the people to name their postmasters," which I have introduced in the House, so far as applicable. That bill will allow all to vote without distinction of party, and would thus take the post offices out of politics.
But by the existing system this is impracticable, inasmuch as the party in power is held responsible for post office administration, and while this is so, all will admit that such party should be allowed full control of the premises. However, all who voted the republican state or presidential tickets in the late election will be admitted to the caucus without regard to former political affiliations. These caucuses will be held under rules and regulations hereafter to be promulgated for the information of both applicants and patrons. If only one petition, sufficiently signed to indicate full notice to patrons be presented and no objection is made to the candidate named, I reserve the right to act without a caucus. I have thought best to make this announcement this early, that all may know what to rely upon and may proceed accordingly.

Gen. Grout took this step without consulting any one and Congressman Powers, it is understood, will settle the post office fights in his district in the old fashioned way. Gen. Grout will issue at once instructions as to the holding of caucuses and the method of selecting the postmaster in the various towns.

Catholic Fair.—The Catholic fair opened Monday evening in a way that predicts for it great success. Harmony band marched to the hall, played outside and opened the evening's programme inside with a selection. Father Carmody in a short and pleasant speech declared the fair open. It was a patriotic speech, in which he said that all people in this country were Americans. He spoke of the love the Catholics had for the stars and stripes and of their prompt response whenever the country's safety had demanded a call for troops. He thanked the ladies for their work in preparing the fair and predicted that their efforts would be crowned with success. Prof. Buell was then introduced, who took the audience around the world with his stereop-tion in about two hours. Many views were shown and the entertainment was highly interesting. Excellent pictures of Fathers Boissonault and Carmody were thrown upon the canvass and the audience greeted them with long and loud applause. There are four booths, candy, young ladies, married ladies and Foresters, all well loaded with candy, fancy and useful articles. Every merchant in town has made the fair a gilt of some article in their stock. Chances can be bought at a nominal price in stoves, pieces of furniture, fancy work, etc.
There are voting contests for the most popular priest in Caledonia county, for the most popular liveryman in St. Johnsbury, the winner to receive a sleigh presented the society by Mr. Ryan, to see how popular Managers Ritchie and Smythe are, the one who gets the most votes to be presented with a gold headed cane, and four little girls are in a contest for a large doll. Tuesday evening a large company gathered in the hall immediately after the torchlight parade. The address by Father O'Sullivan of St. Albans was postponed till Wednesday evening, though he was introduced and made a few remarks, congratulating the people upon their having established an English-speaking parish and upon the excellent fair which they were holding.
